The Capstone Heroes Award
Presented as part of UA’s annual Capstone Creed Week celebrations
March 28, 2011 - April 1, 2011

The Capstone Heroes Award is given to individuals, (faculty, staff, and students) departments, and student organizations who embody the very best ideals of the University of Alabama and the Capstone Creed. Successful nominees should go above and beyond to positively influence the University of Alabama’s community both academically and culturally. Past recipients have sought not only to improve the University community, but to improve the lives of its members.

This year’s awards will be presented at a special ceremony on Thursday, March 31st. Individuals and/or groups selected as Capstone Creed Heroes, along with their nominators, will be notified and invited to the ceremony.

Nomination forms are due to the Office of Student Involvement and Leadership, 355 Ferguson Center, by 4pm on Monday, March 7th.

Nominations may also be submitted via e-mail to Josh Burford, Coordinator of Student Development Programs, at burfo003@sa.ua.edu.

An electronic copy of this form is available at http://leadership.ua.edu/

For questions, please call the Office of Student Involvement & Leadership at 348-6114 or visit us in 355 Ferguson Center.

THE CAPSTONE CREED
As a member of the University of Alabama community,
I will pursue knowledge;
act with fairness, honesty, and respect;
foster individual and civic responsibility;
and strive for excellence.
